The W. S. Matthews & Sons',
Rehandling House Gutted.

It Was Considered the Largest House of Its Kind in the World—
Fully Insured.

250 MEN ARE OUT OF WORK

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 17.—For the second time in six years, fire, smoke and water practically destroyed the big tobacco plant of W. S. Matthews & Sons Co., 1600 to 1618 Rowan St., with its contents, last night, entailing a property loss approximated at $160,000, covered by insurance, and throwing 250 men temporarily out of employment.

This was the largest rehandling plant in the world, and the annual product of high class tobacco for export trade exceeds the combined products of all others.

The two story building occupied by the concern faced on 16th, Rowan and Crop streets, and covered 275 by 180 feet.

All the structure except a warehouse 80 by 180 feet in dimensions, at the east side of the building, was gutted by fire, but Nat. E. Dorch, manager of the leaf department, put a force of men at work last night fitting up the old Dorch plant at 13th and Rowan streets, which will be ready for occupancy within forty-eight hours.

ST. LOUIS MAN

IS HERE TO CONFER ABOUT WEST END SANITARY SEWERAGE.

The City Will Probably Employ Him to Draw the Plans of New District.

Mr. Edward Flad, of St. Louis, an expert sewerage engineer, is in the city to look after the additional sewerage district the council has ordered and is figuring out the cost of the addition.

Several weeks ago the school board and board of health asked that sewers be extended to the West End and in order to do this a separate and individual line will have to be laid, entailing great expense. It would be a matter of only a few years before the boards would have to put in sewerage in the West End under any circumstances and the suggestion to create a new district for the West End met with favorable reception in the legislative boards. City Engineer Washington being busy with street improvements, would not have time to draw the plans and look after the work, and suggested that an engineer be employed to do this. The boards have been looking about and Mr. Flad came here to look into the matter with a view of putting it through.

Those who have once loved can never be satisfied with common friendship.

The City's Efforts to "Oust" the East Tennessee Telephone Company Failed

The city has lost another lawsuit. This time it was the noted suit to "oust" the East Tennessee Telephone company from Paducah, because it has no franchise, and for other reasons.

The suit came up today and a special and a general demurrer were filed by Wheeler, Hughes and Berry for the company. It was claimed in these demurrers that the city had no right to bring the suit.

Judge W. M. Reed concurred in this idea and decided that the city has no right to bring such a suit in other words, that even if all that is alleged in the petition by the city is true, the city still has no cause of action. Judge Reed sustained both demurrers.

This throws the case out of court, although the city may amend its petition. If it does, it will have to offer some other and better reason for putting the telephone company out of business than it gave in the suit.

BOYS PARTY

Started $50,000 Blaze Which Almost Destroyed Town.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 17.—Stanhope, a town of fifteen hundred inhabitants, was almost wiped out by fire last night. Twelve business houses, the hotel and other buildings burned. The loss is fifty thousand. The fire started by boys having a party in the lee house.

NECK BROKEN

BY BEING THROWN FROM HIS WAGON NEAR KIRBYTON,
KENTUCKY.

And Allcock, With Relatives in This County, Meets With Sudden Death.

News reached the city today of the sudden death near Kirbyton Carlisle county, Ky. of Bud Allcock, aged 35, a son of Mr. T. H. Allcock, of near Meher this county.

Allcock was moving and was in a loaded wagon when the horses became frightened and ran up an embankment. Allcock was unable to keep his seat, and fell off under the wagon. The heavy wheels, with the load of goods in the wagon, crushed his life out and broke his neck.

Another wagon was not far behind and when it reached the unfortunate man he was discovered, but his friends found that life was extinct.

The dead man leaves a wife. He has a number of relatives in McCracken county.

ATTORNEY HAL CORBETT

Receives Official Notice of Commutation of Ezell Sentence.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—Hal S. Corbett, of Paducah, Ky., has received a telegram from a member of the board of pardons of Pennsylvania that the board had commuted the death sentence passed upon Jas. Ezell to life imprisonment.

Ezell, who was from Mayfield, Ky., was convicted in September, 1903, of murder in the first degree of the assistant yardmaster of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad at Uniontown, Pa.

Servant to Kentucky's First Governor

Danville, Ky., Nov. 17.—"Aunt" Judith Atkins, the oldest woman in Kentucky, died at her home on Walnut street, in this city, at the age of 129 years. She was a servant in the home of Isaac Shelby, the first governor of Kentucky, when he began his career as chief executive at Lexington in 1792. She was respected by a large circle of white persons, who will likely attend her funeral all in a body tomorrow.

All Quiet Today.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The night passed quietly and order prevails today. The streets constantly patrolled by troops and Cossacks prevent disturbances.

NO ONE WANTED THE FERRY FRANCHISE

It Did Not Suit Owners of the Ferry Boat.

The Mayor Put It Up For Sale But There Was Not a Bid—Will the City Be Without a Ferry?

SECOND FRANCHISE REFUSED.

There was not a single bid for the ferry franchise this morning. The time for selling the new franchise was 10 o'clock and Mayor Yeiser called out the sale at the city hall promptly at that hour but there was not a single person there to bid so the city's trouble was for nothing.

It was thought that Owen Brothers, owners of the ferry boat Hattie Owen, would bid on it, but they were not represented.

Capt. Robert Owen, of the Hattie Owen, stated today that neither he nor his brother Capt. James Owen, cared for the franchise as it is drawn and would not have it. He was asked what would be done in case somebody else bought it in, and stated that the Hattie Owen would be operated as long as she was not stopped.

The objection to the new franchise by Owen Brothers was that it put the ferry business on a basis where no reasonable money could be made, so the firm would rather retire than to lose money. Owen Brothers have been running a ferryboat between Paducah and Brookport and the Illinois shore for many years and so far as known have given a satisfactory service to the people.

It is not known what action the general council will take now. There was talk for awhile of the city running a free ferry, but this is not thought to be probable. While it might bring many more people to the city than now come here, the proposition might be a losing one for the city. Mayor Yeiser is not in a position to say what will result.

No one was prepared to say today whether or not the ferry boat can continue to land here without a franchise. The old franchise expired about two months ago, and the boat has since been operated without one pending the sale of the franchise today.

Even if Owen Brothers can no longer use the landing at the foot of Kentucky avenue however, the franchise on the Illinois shore is intact, and for anyone to start a ferry line to the other side it would be necessary to secure a landing at both Brookport and the landing across the river. The Owen Brothers' franchise on the Illinois shore does not expire for many years.

This is the second franchise the city has gone to the trouble of getting up and the expense of advertising and offering for sale, that has been rejected within the past year.

The present administration seems to have an idea that franchises can be made to suit the city, but to totally disregard the desires of the person for whom they are intended. The East Tennessee Telephone company some time ago agreed to purchase a franchise, and the city has already been paid for it, but when the city put up the franchise it had been so framed that it would have been fatal to the telephone company to attempt to operate under it, just as it would be unprofitable for the ferry company to attempt to operate under the franchise put up today. In both cases no one appeared to bid for the franchises, showing that they were worth nothing to anyone as they were drawn up under the general council's direction.

Have Handsome New Badges.

Detectives T. J. Moore and Will Baker have received new detective badges from Chicago. The badges are similar to those worn in larger cities a star encircled by a band bearing the word, "Detective," and Paducah, Ky., the old badges were too large and crude.

Prominent Coal Men Here.

Mr. John Hignan, of St. Joseph, Mich., and Messrs. Joseph Schliht and W. S. Menz, of Louisville, well known coal men, are today here with M. Samuel P. Sturgis, of Sturgis, Ky., a large coal mine operator, on business, the nature of which could not be learned this afternoon.

The first solid train of canned peas ever shipped from an American canning factory went out from a canning company's plant at Longmont, Col., recently.

SAFE BLOWERS AT MORGANFIELD, KY

The Postoffice Safe Blown and Rifled.

About $182 All That Was Stolen
—Stamps and Postal Cards Stolen.

ROBBERS MADE THEIR ESCAPE.

Morganfield, Ky., Nov. 17.—Safe blowers entered the postoffice here yesterday morning and succeeded in carrying away everything of value that the vault contained. Stamps, postal cards and $182 in money were stolen.

The town was disturbed by a tremendous concussion, and on investigation it was found that the safe had been blown with a powerful explosive. Marshal Joshua Taylor immediately procured bloodhounds and went in search of the robbers. After trailing for two hours the dogs came to a railroad crossing and there lost the scent. Later it was learned that several men were seen to catch a freight train at this place, going towards Paducah.

Several suspicious characters were seen loitering about the town on Wednesday and they were told several times to leave. It is the supposition of Marshal Taylor that these men were the ones that blew the safe.

TELEPHONE MEN

Are in Paducah It Is Reported For a Conference.

A meeting of some of the officials of the Paducah Home Telephone company is to shortly be held at the local office of the concern. President J. E. Hergin, of the Paducah company, and Mr. J. D. Powers, a prominent officer in the Louisville Home company, which has a connection with the local system under a recent sale, have arrived and other officials are expected in a day or two.

It was asked at the office this morning what the meeting was to be held for but the manager did not give out any particulars. He said that it was to take up some business of the company and they will also discuss improvements to be made at once, both locally and in the long distance service.

Mr. Ed Barber, of Wauern, O., and Mr. J. C. Monteith, of Birmingham, Ala., prominent stockholders in the Paducah Home Telephone company, arrived this afternoon to attend the meeting of the company.

FOOT CUT OFF

L. C. CONDUCTOR W. D. HUTCHIN-
SON MEETS WITH ACCIDENT.

He Fell From His Train Near Dyersburg, Tenn.—Brought Here at Noon.

Mr. W. D. Hutchinson, a freight conductor running on the L. C. between Paducah and Memphis fell from his train this morning at 2 o'clock at Dyersburg and was run over, his right foot being amputated above the ankle.

He was alone when the accident happened and fell from the side of the car in some manner. He attempted to shove himself away from the rails but his foot was caught and cut off. The crew stopped the train and went to his assistance. The injury was temporarily dressed at Dyersburg and the unfortunate conductor brought to Paducah at noon, and placed in the hospital. He lies at Paducah, but on account of his run out of Paducah is well known here.

BRIEF CONFERENCE

But It Did Not Change the Street
Car Situation.

A short conference was held yesterday afternoon late by officers of the Paducah Traction Co., and James D. Wood, president of the state Federation of Labor.

Nothing resulted from the meeting, which was only a general discussion of the situation. The street car people state that the lockout matter was but lightly touched on and their answer was that they stood as formerly having not changed in the least in their stand.

Mr. C. O. Pratt of Cleveland, O., who has been here as chairman of the national committee, left last night for some point in Indiana on other business, it is understood.

THE CAGE FELL

And Damaged the Shaft and Badly
Hurt Five Persons.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 17.—A serious mine accident, due to the hoisting engineer failing to control his engine, occurred at a shaft of the South Wilkesbarre colliery this morning, resulting in serious injury to five workmen.

The accident occurred while the men were being lowered to work. The engine failed to work properly and the cage was dashed violently to the bottom of the shaft. The shaft was wrecked and the colliery rendered idle for a day.

3,000 STRIKERS

Marched Back to Work With Red
Flag, Slugging Revolutionary Songs.

Brest, Nov. 17.—Three thousand strikers at the arsenal, naval and dock yard marched in a procession carrying a red flag and singing revolutionary songs, to resume work this morning. The surrender of the men was unexpected and resulted in a clash between Minister of Marine Thompson and Admiral Pepreau, commander of the port. The latter threatened to resign, if the dismissed men are taken back into the government employ.

Clerk Miller's Father Ill.

Mr. S. P. Miller, night clerk at the Palmer house, was called to his home in Union City, Tenn., yesterday afternoon owing to the serious illness of his father, who is very low. During the absence of Mr. Miller the office is being held down by Proprietor Charles Reed, and Day Clerk Ott Adams.

HOTEL THIEVES GOT IN THEIR WORK

S. Nye, Said to Be From Paducah,
Was One of Victims.

The Thieves Got Into Victoria Hotel
at Louisville Despite Watch Kept.

THEY GOT $345 ALL TOLD

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 17.—A thief entered the Victoria Hotel at Tenth and Broadway last night despite a close watch that has been kept by the owners of the hotel, who have a private detective on watch constantly.

As a result two guests were robbed of $345 in money. The victims were J. A. Freeman, a shoe merchant of Paris, Ky., who suffered to the extent of $345, and S. Nye, a traveling salesman of Paducah, who was deprived of $9. Freeman and Nye occupied rooms opposite each other on the second floor of the hotel. Nye was passing through the city on his way south, while Freeman came here yesterday morning to buy a winter stock.

Nye rather than miss train connections dropped the matter. Fortunately he put the larger portion of his money, about $200, in the pocket of his night gown, while Freeman had $350. The thief was considerate enough to leave him about $5. After reporting the case to detectives this morning he telegraphed to his home for more funds.

Paducah's city directory gives no such name as S. Nye but many new travel out of Paducah who are not in the directory.

ROBBERY CHARGE

Is Lodged Against Young Men Named Slaten.

Patrolmen Cross and Terrell, about 9 o'clock this morning arrested Ernest Slaten and Ed. Slaten, young men about 21 years old, on suspicion of robbery.

They are alleged to have held up J. S. Dunn of Tennessee, who lives about thirty miles from Paducah, on the Tennessee river. According to Patrolman Terrell the robbers, whoever they were, were out on West Kentucky avenue when they met Dunn and after a short acquaintance proceeded to "go through him." Dunn claims he was robbed of his silver watch and chain and $15 in cash. The robbery took place about 3 o'clock last night and was immediately reported to police headquarters.

In their search this morning for the young men Patrolmen Cross and Terrell found them in a second street saloon, where one of them is a bartender. They both live here and gave bond. The police do not believe that they are the men who committed the robbery.

Cooperage Company Wins Damage
Suit in Court of Appeals.

The court of appeals at Frankfort today affirmed the McCracken circuit court in the case of F. W. Corley against the Paducah Cooperage Co. Corley worked at the company's plant here and had a hand cut off in a stove machine. He sued for $5,000 damages, and the court here gave peremptory instructions to the jury to find for the defendant.

Corley took an appeal and the appellate court today decided that the court here did right in ordering a verdict for the company.

KITTY PURRINGS

THE LEAGUE IS EXPECTED TO BE GREATER THAN EVER.Little Enthusiasm Now Shown—Holycross Drafted by Newark for Next Season.

While it is assured that the Kitty league will be greater in 1906 than ever before and that the charter and protection of the National Association will not be forfeited, it is recognized by baseball promoters over the circuit that some sweeping reforms must be inaugurated if the organization is to continue in existence, says today's Cairo Bulletin. Especially is it necessary that some radical action be taken to keep the various local associations within the salary limit. During the past season very few towns observed the limit fixed by the bylaws of the league, and the result was disastrous to the organization. It is proposed that the local clubs be required not only to furnish each other with certified copies of all contracts, but also to submit sworn statements of their monthly pay rolls. Practically every association in the league violated the salary limit last year, Cairo, Paducah, Vincennes and Princeton permitting their pay rolls to run away above $1500.

Naturally there is very little baseball enthusiasm on the circuit at this season of the year, but there are a few staunch advocates of the national game who are willing to take the burden on their shoulders until the season opens. The Kitty will bob-up serenely after the first of the year, and things will move along nicely.

Pearl Holycross, fortunately reserved by Cairo at the close of the season, has been drafted by Newark, of the Eastern league. Cairo needs the draft price of $200 that Holy will bring.

A GOOD TIME

IS EXPECTED BY THE KENTUCKY
CLUB.It Will Hold a Meeting in Washington Shortly.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The Kentucky Republican club, of this city, is preparing for a big social occasion on the night of Saturday, Dec. 2. There will be a banquet and addresses will be delivered by the Hon. John W. Yerkes, John W. Langley, Harry Giovannioli, Congressman D. C. Edwards and Congressman J. B. Bennett. Henry Taylor, the incoming president, will introduce the speakers.

Of all the state clubs in Washington the Kentucky Republican club is the most successful, both as a political and social organization.

As an organization it is full of life and it has the distinction of being the only club in Washington that refused to strike its colors and go out of politics when the civil service commission, backed by the president, issued orders that all state clubs must refrain from active participation in politics.

IS WAITING

For Kentucky Board to Elect Inspector—Mr. Wolf Gilsdorf Has Good Chance.

Mr. William Gilsdorf, city electrical inspector, is anxiously awaiting the election of an inspector of the Kentucky board of underwriters, he having an excellent chance to land the job.

The board will have to elect one and it is expected that the salary will be changed a little, the Kentucky board not paying quite so much as was paid the inspector for the joint board of underwriters of Kentucky and Tennessee. Mr. G. W. Cano, who resigned from the latter board as inspector, received $150 monthly and all expenses paid. His work carried him all over both states, but the new inspector will have only Kentucky to work. For this reason it is expected that the salary may be reduced.

Mr. Gilsdorf has done excellent work in Paducah since he went into office and has shown he is a capable and good man for the position of inspector for the state board. He expects to hear from Louisville where the board is in session immediately after the election is held.

The Ways of a Watch...

The ways of a watch are past finding out. Don't try. If your watch is lazy and won't run, let our repairer spur it up—he'll make it on time to a dot.

Ten to one you've neglected it—let it get dirty; or rusty from lack of oil; maybe given it the baby to play with. We get plenty of watches bearing the telltale marks of little teeth. Whatever's the reason, DON'T DELAY; delay costs money and spoils the watch.

We give thorough examination and regulating free—anything more costs as little as satisfactory work can be done for.

THE WATERWAYS CONVENTION OVER

The Next Meeting Will Be at Portsmouth, O., Next Year.

Resolutions Adopted Showing the Enthusiasm and Earnestness of the Men.

THE DELEGATES ALL BACK.

The waterways convention ended at Cairo yesterday afternoon, and was one of the most successful in the history of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association. The following delegates from Paducah returned last night: James Koger, Mark Cole, H. A. Petter, Glen Fowler, J. H. Ashcraft, Frank Parnesley and John Summers.

After a spirited fight, Portsmouth, O., won the next convention over Huntington, Wheeling, Louisville, Maysville and other cities.

The following is a complete list of officers elected yesterday:

President—John L. Vance.
Secretary and Treasurer—J. F. Ellison.

Executive and finance committee—John L. Vance, J. F. Ellison, George Puchta, O. F. Barrett, Paris C. Brown, Albert Bettinger, Edwin C. Gibbs, R. W. Wise, M. B. Farrin.

Vice presidents for Pennsylvania—George H. Anderson, Pittsburg; W. B. Rodgers, Pittsburg; James A. Henderson, Pittsburg.

For West Virginia—Hullihen Quarrier, Wheeling; D. A. Mossman, Huntington; B. W. Peterson, Wheeling; George W. Summers, Parkersburg.

For Ohio—Albert Bettinger, Cincinnati; H. A. Marting, Ironton; D. J. Sinclair, Steubenville.

For Kentucky—W. W. Hite, Louisville; W. A. Patton, Cynthiana; S. A. Fowler, Paducah; W. C. Williams, Louisville.

For Indiana—F. B. Posey, Evansville; M. C. Garber, Madison; Chas. Hegewald, New Albany; J. H. Odell, Evansville.

For Illinois—George Parsons, Cairo; J. C. Willis, McComb; E. A. Smith, Cairo.

The following are the resolutions adopted:

Your committee submits for reaffirmation the declaration of principles approved by the association at its meetings in Parkersburg, 1902, Evansville, 1903, and Huntington, 1904:

First: We reaffirm as the sense of this association that the improvement of the Ohio river from Pittsburg to Cairo should be such as to provide a nine-foot stage at low water to provide for which we respectfully ask that all appropriations and surveys necessary to the completion thereof be provided for at the earliest practicable time.

Resolved: That congress be requested to cause the removal of all artificial obstructions to the full and free use of the Ohio river and its navigable tributaries, to which end it is recommended that the laws of congress for the preservation of harbor lines be strictly enforced.

Third: As to recommendations of engineers, this association advocates that improvements of the Ohio river be made according to the report and recommendations of the United States engineers approved by the secretary of war.

Fourth: This association recommends the construction of a dam at or near Henderson, Ky., so as to make a depth of six feet of water on the mile sill of the lower dam on Green river at Spottsville, Ky., which is necessary to make available the improvement of Green river already completed, as the result would also be to make a pool that would afford safe harbor and adequate water at all seasons for the large population and interests of the cities of Evansville, Henderson and Owensboro. We therefore favor the project in advance of a general survey of the lower river.

Fifth: Whereas, Experience has shown that judicious dredging in time of low water has proved extremely beneficial to low water navigation, therefore be it

Resolved: That we recommend a liberal and timely use of dredges during the progress of the lock and dam construction.

Resolved: That this association renews its protest against the maintenance of narrow channel spans across navigable rivers.

Resolved: That we petition congress to enact such laws as will effectually control the rebuilding of bridges to the end that in reconstructed bridges the obstructive features shall be eliminated.

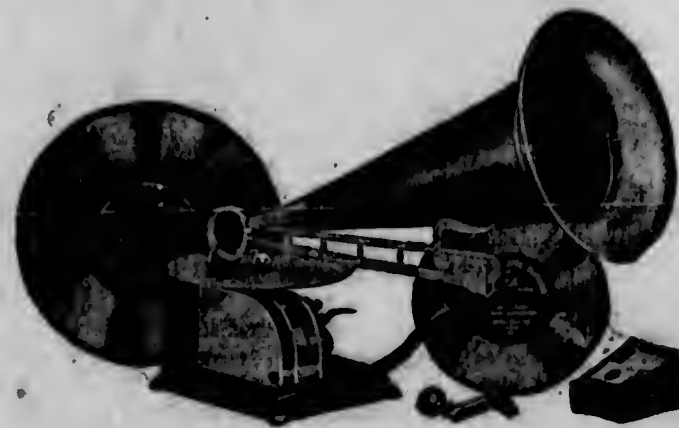

Your committee submits the following additional recommendations: Sixth: Resolved: That the officers and executive committee of this association be requested to arrange a comprehensive system for securing information as to the traffic moved tion recommends the maintenance by the government of an adequate force of engineers to be available for the prosecution of river and harbor improvements to which end it is suggested the appointment or employment of civil engineers from private life.

Tenth. Resolved: That the committee on resolutions extends to its chairman thanks for indulgence and also the impartial manner in which he has presided over these meetings.

The convention according to the local delegates, was one of the best in the history of the association, and much good is expected to result. As soon as the survey at present underway in the lower part of the river is over, it is believed that a big appropriation can be secured for this part of the Ohio.

Many business men were at the convention, and all were well pleased with it.

HOPKINSVILLE ROMANCE.

Miss Martha Duke and Mr. J. Norvell Schrader, of Los Angeles.

Hopkinsville, Ky. Nov. 17.—A pretty and interesting little romance culminated in the wedding of Miss Martha Duke, of this city, and Mr. J. Norvell Schrader, of Los Angeles, Cal. The young couple met for the first time while attending an Epworth League convention in San Francisco, and it was a case of love at first sight.

The wedding took place in the First Methodist church here, which was elaborately decorated in white and yellow chrysanthemums. The ushers were Messrs. Hugh West Ambrey Tuggle, Jim Watson and Will Waller. The attendants were Misses Bertha Stowe, of Julian, Mary Phillips, of Bowling Green, Florence Duncan, of this city, and Annie Stowe of this city. Messrs. Charles and Lyonel Duke, brothers of the bride, Duke Pettit of Princeton, and Jesse Burrus of this city. The matron of honor was Mrs. P. Edgar West, the bride's sister. Miss Cecil Layne acted as flower girl. The wedding march was played by Miss Kate Palansby, of Gudd Hall, Va., and the ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. T. F. Talliaferro, pastor of the First Methodist church, of Frankfort, he being an uncle of the groom.

Daily Thought.

"Life is not holding the good hand but in playing the poor hand well."

It develops that no agreement was made with Owensboro shippers about reducing rates. The trouble seems to be that the railroad men showed too much language in such terms that it was misunderstood. After the Owensboro shippers had filed their rather extensive complaints, they claimed to have been promised what they desired if they would withdraw the charges, which they sought to do. It develops, from the railroad men's side of the story, that the Owensboro men were simply told that before the railroads would agree to anything, the Owensboro men must come to them "with a clean slate," the inference being that when this was done the railroads would make concessions. Owensboro then attempted to "clean off the slate" by dismissing the charges, but did not succeed, and the railroads denied that any agreement existed under the circumstances. It seems, however, that in engaging in a controversy over whether or not an agreement was made, both sides are taking up a great deal of time quibbling over nothing. Let the Owensboro agreement or non-agreement alone, and find out why Kentucky is discriminated against, if Kentucky really is.

There is a great deal of talk and confusion about the choice of McCracken's legislators-elect to the general assembly, for United States senator. It will likely be found that both our senator and our representative are for Paynter. Reports count for little. Senator Campbell has never publicly committed himself, but he has said he would vote for the man his constituents favor. The indications are that the Paynter men predominate if the recent election counts. A Paynter man won in this county. Besides, Senator Campbell is too smart a young man to buck against the party organization. He has everything to gain by going with the pack, and much to lose by straying away. Representative-elect Head is said to be irrevocably pledged to the Paynter faction. In addition, he is not found of the other side, and would probably be opposed to Senator Blackburn because of the latter's friends, if for no other reason. While there is nothing positively known, we believe it would be safe to count in both legislators-elect from McCracken county for the machine candidate.

The Ohio Valley Improvement Association has finished its work—that is, its preliminary work. Its real work is yet to come. A portion of congress has been convinced of the needs of this great waterway, and the thing now necessary to do is to convince enough of congress of it to enable the promoters to secure the appropriate tion essential. The Ohio river and every town and city along its banks, will feel the good effects of a nine-foot stage, especially when the Panama canal is completed in a few years, and much freight will go all from Pittsburgh via New Orleans to and through the canal. There is no time to be lost, and it is evident from the earnestness and enthusiasm of the Cairo convention that the members of this great association fully appreciate the fact.

The insurance companies, some of the patent medicine concerns, and other things besides politics, are undergoing renovation at present, and judging from the results thus far attained, there is much work ahead. The warfare being waged against fake medicines by Collier's Weekly is sure to open people's eyes to the wholesale robbery being perpetrated against them by many of these so-called panaceas. A medicine that does not do what is claimed is bad enough, a medicine that does no harm, although no good, is nothing to be proud of, but a medicine that in the guise of being helpful, is downright injurious, as some of these decoctions, should be promptly run off the market.

The public spirited, unselfish men who went to Cairo to represent Paducah at the waterways convention, deserve the thanks of the entire community. The city refused to contribute a cent for their expenses. They were forced to pay even their railroad fare, although other cities all up and down the Ohio sent big delegations and paid all expenses. Ashland, Ky., about the last city in the state on the Ohio river, sent more delegates than Paducah—and paid their way. We trust that nothing like this will happen again. Paducah is too large and pretentious a city to practice such penny-wise-pound-foolish ideas.

The Murray Times hands us this one: "Paducah supports about one hundred saloons, 'red lights' galore, various gambling institutions, etc., but makes a dead failure on one Y. M. C. A. The metropolis of the 'Purchase' should go back to village ways." We might say in Paducah's defense that if some of the gentlemen from Calloway and other places who come to Paducah, were in the habit of going to the Y. M. C. A. themselves when they come, it might have been different.

The steamboats do not have an easy time getting labor, and some of them are often delayed for many hours at considerable expense to the owners because they cannot get enough men to man the boats. The city authorities should arrest all idlers and force them to either leave the city or go to work. In this way the community will be benefited, the river man will be aided, and the idler himself will be better off for having to betake himself to some honest calling.

The Courier Journal is very outspoken for a complete investigation of the frauds perpetrated at the recent Louisville election. It probably knows that there is little danger of there really being one.

There is no time to go into details—but there will be no change in the chief of police.

Preached Strong Sermon.

Rev. E. H. Cunningham preached a strong sermon last evening at the Second Baptist, and two conversions resulted. Rev. C. P. Roney of Wickliffe, who has been assisting Mr. Cunningham in the revival work, has returned home, but the meeting will continue as long as the interest justifies.

MANY MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIAL DENIED

The Verdict in the Insurance Rebate Case Opened.

The Jury Wanted $500 Fine Assessed Against Company and Agent Jointly.

NEWS OF OTHER COURTS

In the case of the National Surety company against C. W. Emery the motion for a new trial was overruled and the plaintiff given an appeal.

In the case of W. M. Miller against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., a mandate from the appellate court affirming the judgment of the lower court was filed. The lower court found for the defense.

In the case of Roland Duncan against the Democrat Publishing Co., the motion for a new trial was overruled.

In the case of F. G. Rudolph, guardian, against the Conhankins Mfg. Co., the motion for a new trial was overruled.

In the case of Annie Nichols against the I. C. the motion for a new trial was overruled. This is the case where the plaintiff was given a verdict for $15,000 damages for the loss of a leg in an accident at Dawson when a train ran upon a party of plowmen on a trestle. The defense was given time in which to prepare for an appeal.

Henry Armstrong was granted a divorce from his wife, Tillie Armstrong.

Late yesterday afternoon Circuit Judge W. M. Reed decided to open the sealed verdict in the commonwealth's case against the Interstate Life Insurance company to collect the penalty for alleged rebating. The company declined to accept anything but a unanimous verdict, and but one of the jurors signed the verdict, hence it is a mistrial. The verdict was that the company should pay $250 and that their former agent, Mike Caldwell, should pay $250.

Hon. Henry Hughes was selected special judge to try the suit of H. J. Moorman against D. G. Park, involving some property in which Judge Reed has an interest.

An offer was made by Mr. E. H. Berry to turn over to Mr. George C. Wallace a horse in controversy. Mr. Berry was recently awarded $150 for taking care of the animal.

Today the case of the Goodwin-Harris Co. against Englert & Bryant is on trial. The case was begun this morning and is still on trial this afternoon. It is a suit on contract.

Sneak Thieves Abroad.

Thieves seem to be abroad in the West End. A night or two ago a thief entered the home of Mr. J. M. Brown, the insurance agent of Madison street between 10th and 11th, and stole a bucket of milk and broke into the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Ross. A number of other petty thefts are reported, indicating that the thieves are boys.

Sues the Illinois Central.

Carl Murphy, a minor, by his next best friend, has filed suit in circuit court here against the I. C. road for personal injuries.

He claims he was employed by the road as a section hand and was working at East Cairo. He resided at Barlow, Ky., a few miles from East Cairo and while riding home with others on a handcar was run upon by a train while crossing a trestle. He jumped twenty feet and in alighting sustained internal injuries. He asks for $2,000 damages. The accident happened June 14.

The Westinghouse Co. filed a suit yesterday in circuit court against T. L. Easley for an alleged debt of $114 and for the sale of attached property to satisfy the claim.

Deaths.

Hettie Stark and others died to W. H. Welkel for $775 property in the Fountain park addition.

Storm Water Sewers Nearly Complete

The storm water sewers on Jefferson street are about complete, and will be entirely so when about thirty feet of pipe arrives and is put down so the last part of the ditches, near Fifth street, may be refilled.

THE CONFERENCE

TODAY HAS BEEN TAKEN UP WITH ROUTINE WORK.

Matters of General Interest to People in Paducah and the Vicinity.

The third day's session of the Memphis conference at Mayfield opened with a very large attendance this morning. Each day shows a gain in the crowd of delegates and visitors present. After the religious service preliminaries of opening, the routine business of the conference was taken up and has consumed much of the day. The reports from the various committees were being heard this afternoon at press time. Beyond this there has been little to distinguish the day. The conference is making good progress and the bishop has the work well in hand, looking toward the finish on Monday.

The Mayfield Messenger says of yesterday's conference session:

"The reports of the pastors show of a good degree of advancement during the year. One of the older preachers, T. J. McGinn, who had been two years a supernumerary, but last year took work, reported 176 conversions and two increases in his salary during the year.

"W. J. Naylor, pastor of Covington circuit, reported 400 conversions and 217 additions to the church. This is likely the greatest number of conversions; some other charges having a greater number of additions.

"The conference quartette, Rev. John Wilson, Rev. C. A. Watterfield, Rev. H. C. Johnson and Rev. J. J. Thomas, favored the body with two selections, which were greatly enjoyed.

"Rev. John Randle, who joined this conference in 1813, is a conspicuous figure at this session. He is the senior member of this class, who after serving the usual term 'one trial' was received into full connection in 1813. These are thirteen names in this list, known as the 'honor roll.'

"W. C. Sellers, one of the best preachers in the conference, is now enjoying himself very much by mixing among his many friends in Mayfield. He is not as handsome as some of the ministers, but his life and character make him handsome among those who know him."

The ladies of the Mayfield Home Mission society gave a reception this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the Epworth League rooms at the First Methodist church, to the visiting ladies and their hostess.

The Mayfield Messenger of yesterday contains a picture of Dr. W. R. Hayes, of this city, with the following tribute: "Dr. W. R. Hayes of the Shaffner-Hayes Medical Co., Paducah, a devoted husband who without compensation, serves the conference board of missions as treasurer, handling some eighteen thousand dollars a year."

Dr. P. H. Whisner, of Louisville secretary of the church extension work, was one of the speakers at the conference yesterday and stressed the importance of his work.

Bishop Lane, of C. M. E. church presented the cause of Lane College and a collection was taken for this institution at Jackson, Tenn.

Dr. J. H. Stevenson, having the chair of Hebrew at Vanderbilt University lectured on the Psalms yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It was a most interesting address as Dr. Stevenson is a brilliant man and finished speaker.

Rev. J. H. Roberts, presiding elder of the Paducah district, reported a large gain in churches and membership and a good gain in finances. There was nothing against any man in his district but everything for them. All the presiding elders made an excellent showing of the work on their districts.

People and Pleasant Events

A Delightful Concert.

A very delightful occasion was the concert last evening at the Kentucky theater under the auspices of the Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for the benefit of the silver service fund for the gunboat Paducah. It was successful from start to finish and greatly pleased the large and representative audience.

Prof. Harry Gilbert's concert orchestra of twenty pieces was a feature of the evening and the reception accorded it was most enthusiastic. It was the first appearance of the orchestra and Prof. Gilbert's versatility and talent was brought into full play in his initial role of leader. He was vigorously applauded on every appearance and the orchestra made a most favorable impression. Two of the pieces rendered were compositions of Mr. Herbert Wallerstein and Mr. H. M. Cunningham, the talented Paducah composers.

"The Village Choir, consisting of Mrs. James Weille, Mrs. David Flournoy, Mr. Emmet Bagby and Mr. Slave Mail, in costume, with their old-time songs were popular favorites of the evening.

The solos rendered by Mrs. James Weille, Mrs. W. C. Schofield, and Mr. R. D. MacMillan, were very attractive and were repeatedly encored.

Eugene Field's delightful little "Wynken, Blynken and Nod" with soprano obligato, was sung by Mrs. David Flournoy, Messrs. Richard Scott, Slave Mail, R. D. MacMillan and Edward Scott, with fine effect and gave especial pleasure.

The chapter thinks that fully $125 will be cleared after all indebtedness is settled.

Box Parties For D. A. R. Concert.

Two box parties were given last evening at the D. A. R. concert at the Kentucky theater.

Miss Julia Dabney who won the box offered for selling the largest number of tickets, had for her guests, Miss Ellen Boswell, Miss Lucyette Soule, Miss Elsie Hodge, Miss Mary Wheeler, Miss Lucille Harth, Miss May B. Jennings, Miss Susie Dabney, Miss Virginia Nowell chaperoned the party.

Mrs. James P. Smith, Mrs. Charles Kiger, Mrs. Charles James, of Evansville, Mrs. James A. Rose, of Springfield, Ill., Misses Esther and Ruth Wheeler, of Union, O., and Miss Helen Van Cleave, of Springfield, occupied the other box.

RULERS OF THE WORLD.

Meat Eating Nations Are the Leaders in Every Branch of Human Achievements.

The ruling nations of the world are meat eaters and history records that they always have been.

Vegetarians and food cranks may explain this in any way they choose, but the facts remain that the Americans, English, French, Russians and Germans are meat-eating nations, and they are also the most energetic and most progressive.

The principle food of the heroic Boer soldier, known as Hiltong, is a sort of dried beef, affording a great deal of nourishment in a highly concentrated form.

The weak races of people are the rice-eating Chinese, Hindoos, and Siamese, regarded since the dawn of history as non-progressive, superstitious and inferior physically and mentally to the meat-eating nations who dominate them.

The structure of the teeth plainly indicates that human beings should subsist upon a variety of food, meat, fruit and grains, and it is unhygienic to confine one's diet to any one of these classes to the exclusion of another.

Meat is the most concentrated and most easily digested of foods, but our manner of living is often so unnatural that the digestive organs refuse to properly digest meat, eggs and similar nutritious and wholesome food, but it is not because such food is unwholesome, but the real reason is that the stomach lacks, from disease or weakness, some necessary digestive element; hence arising indigestion and, later on, chronic dyspepsia.

Nervous people should eat plenty of meat, convalescents should make meat the principal food, hard-working people have to do so, and brain-workers and office men should eat, not so much meat, but at least once a day, and to insure its perfect digestion one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be taken after each meal, because they supply the peptones, diastase and fruit acids, lacking in every case of stomach trouble.

Nervous dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, gastritis, sour stomach, gas and acidity are only different names for indigestion, the failure to digest wholesome food, and the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cures them all because, by affording perfect digestion, the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the real household medicine; it is as safe and pleasant for the stomach ache of the baby as it is for the imperfect digestion of its grand sire.

They are not an enanthic, but a digestive, and no pill habit can ever follow their use; the only habit Stuart's Tablets induce is the habit of good digestion and consequently good health.

Kentucky Girl Weds in China.

Shelbyville, Ky., 17.—Word has just been received here of the marriage, at Yokohama, Japan, on October 16, of Miss Lula C. Lake, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. George B. Lake, formerly of this place, but now of Lexington, and Prof. W. W. Brockman. Mr. Brockman is professor of English in the University of China, at Soochow. The ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, the Rev. John Lake, who is a missionary, and was compelled to travel 2,000 miles that he might perform the ceremony.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at W. B. McPherson's drug store; price 50c.

A RUSH BEGINS ON TENNESSEE CENTRAL

Not Enough Engines to Handle the Business at Present.

The Illinois Central Has Begun Improving Its Part of the Road.

PROBABLE CHANGES LIKELY

At no time in its history has the Tennessee Central railroad been so crowded with traffic as it has been for the past ten days. The rush of work has put several engines out of commission this week and other roads are being called on for help. The Illinois Central has furnished two big locomotives for the western division of the road and the Southern is expected to furnish several for the eastern division the last of this week.

With the Illinois Central officials time is not dragging heavily on its hands insofar as the improvement of its division of the Tennessee Central, and it is officially stated that work has been under way for the past three days, and that within the next eight weeks the entire 85 miles of track between Nashville and Hopkinsville will be up to the standard of excellence of the other divisions of the road. The Illinois Central will install a big steam shovel at Gravelotte that can load 3,000 yards of dirt per day, and this gravel will be used as ballast, though from the other end of the division the Illinois Central trains are bringing in slag to line the roadbed with. The work is under the supervision of Chief Engineer Lonnbladh, who, it is understood, will continue as an employee of the Illinois Central.

It is stated that when the western division is ballasted it will be one of the fastest pieces of track in the south. Master of Transportation F. G. Bement of the Tennessee Central, is slated for superintendent of terminals at Nashville under the new organization, and while nothing officially has been given out in regard to the matter, it is very probable that such will be his title.

While the disposition of the employees of the Tennessee Central when the two big systems come into Nashville has been a matter of more or less interest generally, it has been of little moment to the employees themselves.

The following changes are mentioned, though with the exception of Mr. William Smith, Jr., there is no official confirmation:

Mr. F. K. Huger, formerly division superintendent of the Southern at Knoxville, may be the superintendent of the Nashville division of the Southern with headquarters at Nashville; Chief Engineer Lonnbladh will have charge of the improvements to be made and it is stated that he will retain all his assistants; F. R. Wheeler, now commercial agent of the Illinois Central, is slated for the position of District Passenger Agent of the Illinois Central; R. W. Brown, now soliciting agent here, is slated for commercial agent in charge of the freight business; J. F. Jenkins, at present city ticket agent for the Tennessee Central, is slated for city passenger agent with the Southern, while Mr. Reynolds, at present his assistant, may be made city ticket agent. Mr. T. A. Rousseau may go to the Southern, while it has been announced in Evansville that Mr. Wm. Smith, Jr., assistant general freight agent, of the Illinois Central at that place, will be given a better position with the road in Nashville and will remove to this city.

It is believed that the Illinois Central railroad has selected a site for a freight depot in Clarksville, at the intersection of First and Commerce streets. The Tennessee Central built only a shed, with the very little trackage in the freight yard, an arrangement entirely inadequate for the handling of the heavy traffic that is expected.

Homeseekers' Excursions.

On November 21 and December 5 and 19, 1905, the Illinois Central Railroad company, will sell first class round trip tickets at greatly reduced rates to points in Colorado, Indian Territory, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Wyoming, Mexico, Michigan, Mississippi, Arkansas and other territory. Tickets will be good for twenty-one (21) days to return.

BOARD OF WORKS ORDERS. INQUIRY

As to Certain Rights of the Gas and Water Companies.

Object to Charging For Pipes From the Mains to Property Lines.

OTHER BUSINESS TAKEN UP.

The board of public works yesterday afternoon discussed a number of matters in connection with connecting houses and buildings with the gas and water mains. President Noble stated that the gas company would not permit any plumbers except its own to run pipes from the mains to the yards or property line.

It was also stated that the gas and water companies charged property owners for the pipes laid from the mains to the property line and it was suggested that the companies have no right to charge for any pipe except that from the property line to the house. The board ordered the city solicitor to make an investigation and ascertain if the companies have exceeded their rights under their franchises.

Street Inspector Alonzo Elliott was instructed to have the alleys back of city telephone office and Rehkopf's collar shop put in good repair.

City Engineer Washington was instructed to put down a piece of round curb near Clements and Short streets, Mechanicsburg, to carry off the surface water.

The city solicitor was instructed to examine the city records to ascertain if the general council has legally ordered the passage way or fill from Caldwell street to the new basket factory. The boards are understood to have ordered it but no official notice has been received by the board. If the council has properly ordered the work, it will be started as soon as the fact is ascertained.

City Engineer Washington reported that he could not give the grades for sidewalks and curbing on West Jefferson street before the first of next week. Contractor Bridges desires to begin the work at once, and expects to finish it before cold weather.

The bond executed by Contractor Bridges to keep sidewalks on Tennessee street between 12th and 13th streets in good repair, was accepted.

Street Inspector Elliott was instructed to begin the plank walk from the McKinley school in Mechanicsburg to Bridge street, so the children can get to school in bad weather.

City Engineer Washington was instructed to carry the surface water drainage seventy feet from Fifth and Trimble streets, where it now stops.

Saved By Dynamite.
Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamiting would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and la grippe. At W. B. McPherson's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Settled The Fly Flap of 'Cohn

Cadiz, Ky., Nov. 17.—The tie in the race for Councilman in the city of Cadiz between J. H. Alexander and J. W. McKinney was decided in favor of Mr. Alexander. The official count gave each 96 votes. It then became necessary to settle the matter by lot according to law. It was agreed to pitch up a dollar. It was decided that Mr. McKinney pitch the dollar, he taking heads. The eagle fell up and it was all over. Mr. Alexander winning the place. The contest afforded a great deal of amusement, and the matter was settled in the best of humor.

A Creeping Death.

Hood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death: J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at W. B. McPherson's drug store.

Never Recovered His Lunch.

Sturgis, Ky., Nov. 17.—Ben Hieronymus, a prominent union man of Caseyville, will go to Evansville where a party of friends are expected to meet him to return in his nice gasoline launch. Mr. Hieronymus has never recovered the nice launch stolen from her moorings at Caseyville several months ago and he thinks now that he never will as the boat has likely been robbed of the machinery and then sunk to avoid all trace.

CHAPTER XVI.

It was the cottage of a New York millionaire which had fallen to Brewster. The owner had, for the time, preferred Italy to St. Augustine and left his estate, which was well located and lavishly equipped, in the hands of his friends. Brewster's lease covered three months, at a fabulous rate per month. With Joe Bragdon installed as manager in chief, his establishment was transferred bodily from New York, and the rooms were soon as comfortable as their grandeur would permit. Brewster was not allowed to take advantage of his horses and the new automobile which preceded him from New York, but to his guests they offered unlimited opportunities.

Nipper Harrison had remained in the north to renew arrangements for the new hotel and to look after the advance details of the yacht cruise. Dr. Lottless and his sister, with Sherry Smith and the Grays, made up Brewster's party. Lottless dumped Monty's spirits by relentlessly putting him on rigid diet, with most discouraging restrictions upon his conduct. The period of convalescence was to be an exceedingly trying one for the invalid. At first he was kept indoors, and the hours were whiled away by playing cards, but Monty considered bridge the pious idiom and preferred to play whist with Peggy. It was one of these games that the girl interrupted with a question that had troubled her for many days. "Monty," she said, and she found it much more difficult than when she had rehearsed the scene in the silence of her walks, "I've heard a rumor that Miss Drew and her mother have taken rooms at the hotel. Wouldn't it be pleasant to have them here?"

A heavy gloom settled upon Brewster's face, and the girl's heart dropped like lead. She had puzzled over the estrangement and wondered if by any effort of her own things could be set right. At times she had had flashing hopes that it did not mean as much to Monty as she had thought, but down underneath, the fear that he was unhappy seemed the only certain thing in life. She felt that she must make sure. And together with the very human desire to know the worst was the persistent impulse to bring it about.

"You forget that this is the last place they would care to invade." And in Brewster's face Peggy seemed to read that for her marriage was the only way. Bravely she put it on.

"Monty, I forget nothing that I really know. But this is a case in which you are quite wrong. Where is your sporting blood? You have never fought a losing fight before, and you can't do it now. You have lost your nerve, Monty. Don't you see that this is the time for an aggressive campaign? Somehow she was not saying things at all as she had planned to say them, and his gloom weighed heavily upon her. "You don't mind, do you, Monty," she added more softly, "this sort of thing from me? I know I ought not to interfere, but I've known you so long, and I hate to see things twisted by a very little mistake."

But Monty did mind enormously. He had no desire to talk about the thing anyway, and Peggy's anxiety to marry him off seemed a bit unnecessary. Manifestly her own interest in him was of the coldest. From out of the gloom he looked at her somewhat sullenly. For the moment she was thinking only of his pain, and her face said nothing.

"Peggy," he exclaimed finally, resenting the necessity of answering her, "you don't in the least know what you are talking about. It is not a bit of anger on Barbara's part. It is a serious conviction."

"A conviction which can be changed," the girl broke in.

"Not at all," Brewster took it up. "She has no faith in me. She thinks I'm an ass."

"Perhaps she's right," she exclaimed, a little hot. "Perhaps you have never discovered that girls say unkind things to hide their emotions. Perhaps you don't realize what feverish, excommunicatory, foolish things girls are. They don't know how to be honest with the men they love, and they wouldn't if they did. You are little short of an idiot, Monty Brewster, if you believed the things she said rather than the things she looked."

And Peggy, fiery and determined and defiantly unhappy, threw down her cards and escaped so that she might not prove herself fearfully feminine. She left Brewster still heavily enveloped in melancholy, but she left him puzzled. He began to wonder if Barbara Drew did have something in the back of her mind. Then he found his thoughts wandering off toward Peggy and her defiance. He had only twice before seen her in that mood, and he liked it. He remembered how she had lost her temper once when she was fifteen and hated a girl he admired. Suddenly he laughed aloud at the thought of the fierce little picture she had made, and the gloom which had been so suddenly extinguished was dispelled in a moment. The laugh surprised the man who brought in some letters. One of them was from Nipper Harrison and gave him all the private news. The ball was to be given at mid-Lent, which arrived toward the end of March, and negotiations were well under way for the chartering of the liner, the steam yacht belonging to Reginald Brown, late of Brown & Brown.

The letter made Brewster chafe under the bonds of isolation. His affairs were getting into a discouraging state. The illness was certain to entail a loss of more than $50,000 to his business. His only consolation came through Harrison's synopsis of the reports from Gardner, who was making the brief American tour of the Venetian orchestra. Quarrels and disagreements were becoming everyday embarrassments, and the venture was an utter failure from a financial point of view. Broken contracts and lawsuits were turning the tour into one continuous round of losses, and poor Gardner was on the point of despair. From the beginning, apparently, the concerts had been marked for disaster. Public indifference had aroused the scorn of the irascible members of the orchestra, and there was imminent danger of a collapse in the organization. Gardner lived in constant fear that his troop of quarrelsome Hungarians would finish their tour suddenly in a pitched battle with daggers and stiletos. Brewster smiled at the thought of the practical Gardner trying to smooth down the electric emotions of these musicians.

A few days later Mrs. Proutis Drew and Miss Drew registered at the Ponce

Peggy threw down her cards and escaped. She had no desire to talk about the thing anyway, and Peggy's anxiety to marry him off seemed a bit unnecessary. Manifestly her own interest in him was of the coldest. From out of the gloom he looked at her somewhat sullenly. For the moment she was thinking only of his pain, and her face said nothing.

Peggy Gray was in despair over Monty's attitude. She had become convinced that behind his pride he was cherishing a secret longing for Barbara. Yet she could not see how the walls were to be broken down if he maintained this icy reserve. She was sure that the mysterious tone was the

GOOD HEALTH IS ESSENTIAL TO EVERY FORM OF USEFULNESS.

Will the sale of Payne's Remedies reach the same astonishing figures in Paducah as in other cities?

This is the question being asked by people who have closely followed the work of Payne in this city, and apparently the answer is being found in the record the remedies are making.

Although it has been several weeks since the preparations were first introduced in Paducah, the public interest is increasing and crowds in which almost every class of citizens is represented visit Smith & Nagel's drug store daily to talk with Payne.

What is a Dollar Compared With Good Health?

Mrs. Grinnell called and expressed her thanks and said: "For ten years I have been a great sufferer from Catarrh. My sense of smell was gone, I could not rest well at night, and was always tired when I got up in the morning. I had a dull, heavy headache. My head was stopped up and the mucus from the head dropped into the throat, and I would cough up great chunks of phlegm."

"I used one bottle of the Payne's New Discovery and I was surprised at the result. My head was cleared at once, my sense of smell was restored as if by magic and my sleep is now sound and refreshing."

Not only do people tell Payne about these cases, but each mail brings written statements of the character to Smith & Nagel's drug store, and it is said that the remedies are becoming as popular throughout the state as they are in this city.

What is the use, Miss Drew, of taking an attitude like that? I know the situation pretty well, and I can't believe that either Monty or you have lost in a week a feeling that was so deep-seated. I know Monty much too well to think that he would change so easily. Peggy still lived largely in her ideals. "And you are too fine a thing not to have suffered under this misunderstanding. It seems as if a very small word would set you both straight."

Barbara drew herself up and kept her eyes on the road, which lay white and gleaming in the sun. "I have not the least desire to be set straight." And she was never more serious.

"But it was only a few weeks ago that you were engaged."

"I am sorry," answered Barbara, "that it should have been talked about so much. Mr. Brewster did ask me to marry him, but I never accepted. In fact, it was only his persistence that made me consider the matter at all. I did think about it. I confess, that I rather liked him. But it was not long before I found him out."

"What do you mean?" And there was a flash in Peggy's eyes. "What has he done?"

"To my certain knowledge he has spent more than $400,000 since last September. That is something, is it not?" Miss Drew said in her slow, cool voice, and even Peggy's loyalty admitted some justification in the criticism.

"Generosity has ceased to be a virtue, then?" she asked coldly.

"Generosity?" exclaimed Barbara sharply. "It's sheer idiocy. Haven't you heard the things people are saying? They are calling him a fool, and in the clubs they are betting that he will be a pauper within a year."

"Yet they charitably help him to spend his money, and I have noticed that even worldly manumans find him eligible." The comment was not without its caustic side.

"That was months ago, my dear," protested Barbara calmly. "When he spoke to me he told me it would be impossible for him to marry within a year. And don't you see that a year may make him an object of pity?"

"Naturally anything is preferable to a beggar," came in Peggy's clear, soft voice.

Barbara hesitated only a moment. "Well, you must admit, Miss Gray, that it shows a shameful lack of character. How could any girl be happy with a man like that? And, after all, one must look out for one's own fate."

"Indubitably," replied Peggy, but many thoughts were dashing through her brain.

"Shall we turn back to the cottage?" she said after an awkward silence.

"You certainly don't approve of Mr. Brewster's conduct?" Barbara did not like to be placed in the wrong and felt that she must endeavor to justify herself.

"It is the most reckless of spendthrifts, we know, and he probably indulges in even less respectable excitement."

Peggy was not tall, but she carried her head at this moment as though she were in the habit of looking down on the world.

"Aren't you going a little too far, Miss Drew?" she asked placidly.

"It is not only New York that laughs over his Quixotic transactions," Barbara persisted. "Mr. Hampton, our guest from Chicago, says the stories are worse out there than they are in the east."

"It is a pity that Monty's illness should have made him so weak," said Peggy—quietly as they turned in through the great iron gates, and Barbara was not slow to see the point.

It Is Hoped That Girl's Limb Will Not Have to Be Amputated.

Miss Wilhelmina Sasseen, of Portageville, Mo., who had a leg crushed and broken in an elevator accident at the Rhodes-Burford establishment, is doing as well as could be expected, and it is hoped to save the injured limb.

Miss Sasseen's relatives claim that she did not enter the elevator alone and try to go up on it, but that one of the employees put her on it and started it up where her cousin was, the latter being on the third floor, where the elevator would have stopped. She mistook the second floor for the place she desired to get off and in trying to do so was caught between the third floor and the elevator and hurt.

Massie County Prisoners.

Metropolis, Ill. Nov. 17.—There are ten prisoners now in the county jail, five of whom are doing time service on conviction. These are: John Wadleigh, committed until fine and costs are paid; Fletcher Brown, committed for petty larceny; Elsie Bly, assault on John Edwards doing time. Owen Neely and Weaver for sundry offenses. There are also five persons held in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. They are: Calvin Brooks, held for larceny; Ike Williams, assault on rape; Geo. Dennis, embezzlement and Geo. Williams, assault on murder.

CITY TAX NOTICE.

City taxpayers are hereby reminded that the last half of their city taxes are due since November the first.

After December the first ten percent will be added to all unpaid bills. We desire to give everyone an opportunity to escape this penalty.

Kindly call at the city treasurer's office city hall, and settle as soon as possible, and thus avoid the discomfort and delay so unpleasant to all in the month of the last days.

Very Respectfully,

JOHN J. DORIAN,
City Treasurer.

Cars Run On Third.

Third street is practically complete, and cars will be running to 6th and Broad streets today for the first time since last July, when the street was torn up for reconstruction.

SHOOTING CASES

A RAILROAD BARKEV DISMISSED FOR SHOOTING AT A "HULLY."

No One Was Hurt—Alleged Duellists Held Over For Malicious Shooting.

The principal case to come before Judge Sanders in police court this morning was that against Cal West, a railroad negro charged with malicious shooting. West might be guilty of malicious shooting under the strict letter of the law but under the circumstances he was excused. He and County Attorney Eugene Graves stated to the court that he did not desire to prosecute.

The evidence brought out the fact that Jim Bass, alias McDonald, had been "bulldozing" West for some time and West was very much afraid of him. West had often complained to the police of Bass' conduct and Bass had been warned several times to leave West alone by the police.

The officers testified that Bass was half drunk nearly all the time and yesterday he appeared at West's home and demanded the latter to go out and buy him whiskey, and when he refused, shoved West about. West grabbed a stick and struck his antagonist and the two began fighting. After they separated Bass went out into the yard and secured a knife. He made a play with the knife and West secured a pistol. Bass advanced and while he had no knife visible, West was so afraid of him that he began to shoot and Bass to run.

The evidence showed that Bass is very much a bully and had imposed on West to such an extent that he was in misery for fear he would be done bodily harm.

Judge Sanders dismissed the charge on motion of the county attorney.

The charge of breach of the peace against Bass was dismissed.

There was but one other case in police court, this being that against John Williams and Fred Crossland, colored, charged with indulging in a pistol duel. This happened near the Pat Lally grocery store. Neither duelist was struck but they were held over to the grand jury.

PADUCAH MAX

Buys Thirty-three Hogheads of Tobacco at Mayfield.

Mr. Joe Wright, of Paducah, came out Thursday morning and purchased 33 hogheads of lugs of the Dark Tobacco Association, for which he paid $4 per 100 pounds, says the Mayfield Messenger. The probability is that the association will make another sale before very long.

Big Tobacco Deals.

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 17.—Many big tobacco deals have been consummated in the counties of Webster, Hopkins and Caldwell. It is reported that the firm of Gallagher, Limited, has purchased a million pounds at Providence. The Imperial Tobacco Co. is competing with Gallagher at several places, having made a large purchase. At Providence, Slaughtersville and Seabee that company has purchased a million and a half pounds. The Imperial has purchased eight hundred thousand pounds at Nebo and one million pounds at Princeton, Ky.

The prices paid were from five to seven and one-half cents per pound.

Smithland Notes.

Yesterday afternoon while getting hay from the loft to feed the stock at the livery stable, Mr. R. B. Cover fell and badly bruised himself all along his right side. He sustained very painful injuries, but nothing dangerous. He will probably be out in a few days. * * * Mr. Frank Morgan and Miss Dixie Glass, of Berry Ferry were married at the court house, Wednesday, November 15, Rev. R. L. Tally, of Smithland, officiating.—Banner.

DON'T

Neglect that cough. Every woman a cough is allowed to go unattended means danger to the sufferer. Any moralist will tell you that the best time to stop an evil is in the beginning. For instance, if you realize that a habit of any kind is growing on you, it is far better to shake it off while you can than to wait until it is master. The same rule applies to diseases. It does not cost you much to stop a cough in the beginning with

GOOD DEPORTMENT IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The "Bad Boy" is Almost a Thing of the Past.

Teachers Are Able to Devote More Time Now to the Educational Work Proper.

A NUMBER OF SCHOOL NOTES

"There has been a wonderful improvement in deportment in the city schools during the past two years," an official declared this morning, "and the attention of the teachers can be fully directed towards the educational part proper."

"When the teacher has to look after the behavior of pupils it takes time and attention from the purely educational part of the work, and when children's behavior is of such a nature that she does not have to look to it so closely, she is more at ease and can devote her entire attention to the training of the mind. This is a condition hard to effect, and I am glad to see it exist here. It is one indication that the schools are nearing perfection."

It seems that the authorities have been introducing into the schools new ideas which interest the pupils more than things which might lead to misbehavior, and in this way the "bad boy" is eliminated from the schools—he hasn't time to think of mischief because he is interested in his work. When the work of pupils is made so interesting to them that they take time to think of nothing else, it is a very good testimonial that the teachers are doing phenomenal work.

The boys' debating club will meet tonight at the High school and debate the labor question. The debating club is one of the most interesting branches of the pleasure-educational work in the schools and members of the club take a great delight in the debates. This is not a public debate but confined to the pupils alone.

Miss Emma Morgan, teacher of English in the High school, has returned to her duties after a brief illness.

Miss Clara Anderson, teacher of the First grade at the Washington building, is still ill and unable to be at her school.

This afternoon the teachers' monthly meeting is being held. The meeting is being conducted by Prof. J. S. Ragsdale.

Today a gas combination water and steam heater is being installed in the office of Supt. C. M. Leih. This is done in order to economize in fuel. When the school board meets at night the fire in the furnace has to be kept up at the Washington building in order that the room be comfortable. The gas heater will be an economical move and will heat the one room sufficiently until the board had transacted its business and adjourned.

The High school orchestra played this morning at the High school during the opening exercises. It was recently organized under the direction of Miss Ada Brazleton and makes excellent music. There are nine pieces in the orchestra.

BODY FOUND.

Alexander Duff Had No Relatives in America—Drowned Near Metropolis.

The body of Alexander Duff, the man run down and drowned by the Grace Smith about ten days ago, near Metropolis, was found by A. M. Johnson and W. F. Littlemeier one hundred yards below the Belgrade light. The body was well preserved and easily identified although covered with mud as though it had just risen from the bottom. The unfortunate man was employed several years ago as diver at the intake pipe of the Metropolis water works. He was a native of Scotland, had no relatives here, and little was known of him except that in his earlier years he was a sea captain and later worked on the Ohio river boats as common laborer. Squire Liggett held an inquest over the body, the verdict being a complete identification of the body and that death was caused by drowning, attaching no blame to anyone. The remains were buried on the river bank.

Case of Scarlet Fever.

The nine-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lulu Moss, of Clements street, who lives adjoining a house in which was scarlet fever a few weeks ago, has scarlet fever. She has been attending the McKinley school in Mechanicsburg, but it is deemed unnecessary to close the school, and this afternoon the school will be thoroughly fumigated.

RAILROAD MEN

Called On President Roosevelt About Rate Legislation.

Representatives of five railway brotherhoods, engineers, firemen, conductors, switchmen and trainmen, called upon President Roosevelt a protest against any freight rate legislation by congress which would result in the lowering of wages of employees. In response President Roosevelt assured the delegation that it was not his purpose or the purpose of those who favor railroad rate regulation to do anything that might injure the railroads of the country or incidentally the employees of the railroads. He said that it was his purpose that all classes—railroads, shippers and employees—should have perfectly fair treatment. He was of the opinion that the proposed legislation would not mean a reduction necessary in railroad rates, and suggested that the members of the delegation, therefore, were proceeding on a wrong understanding of the situation.

RAT KILLING GALORE

At the Old Stable When the Floor Was Torn Up.

The floor in the livery stable until recently occupied by John Terrell, on North Fifth street is being torn up today and a large crowd of boys with dogs have been enjoying themselves killing rats. They have killed about 100 and it is believed there are as many more to be found before the floor is all up.

This is the site for the Elks' new home. Contractor Katterjohn will probably commence excavating next week for the foundation. The brick wall separating the property and the postoffice ground is being torn down. It has stood there for many years.

FINE ENTERTAINER

Frank Stewart Regan, Cartoonist, at the Kentucky Tonight.

Frank Stewart Regan, the lecturer and cartoonist, will be at the Kentucky theater tonight for the benefit of the Third Street Methodist church. He is one of the best attractions of the Southern Locomotive tour, and always draws large audiences.

He illustrates his lectures with cartoons, and is both clever and magnetic. A large audience should greet him. This is the second of a series of entertainments the church is to have this winter.

Card of Thanks.

Pastoral chapter, Daughter of the American Revolution wishes to thank Manager T. W. Roberts, of the Kentucky, the Hotel company, the newspapers of the city, Prof. Harry Gilhe and his orchestra, and all who took part in the concert last evening, for the many kindnesses and courtesies shown them.
